SUBJECT: Documents Posted on District’s Web Site

The content of this web site is provided by Northampton Municipal Utility District for informational purposes only.

There are numerous documents posted on the District’s web site that are amended and updated periodically by the District’s Board and consultants. Some of the documents are modified on specific schedules mandated by the statutes and regulations of the State of Texas. Others are amended at the Board’s discretion. Therefore, please be aware that although the date on a document might be several years old, the document is not necessarily out of date.

This web site and the information contained herein should not be relied upon or used as current information for the purposes of securities disclosure about the District, its financial condition, the bonds of the District, or property in the District. Persons should not rely upon information in this web site when considering whether to buy, sell, or hold bonds issued by the District or whether to buy, sell, or hold property within the District.

The District’s Board and consultants make every attempt to keep the documents on the web site current. If you have questions about any of the documents, please feel free to send us a message using the e-mail form in the “Contact Us” section of the web site. We will investigate your inquiry and send you a response by reply e-mail.
